

When my son and daughter were born, God took me on an interesting journey that included revealing to me so much about His character, nature, and deep love for us as a Father. These pages are simply some of my new-dad stories along with the truths that God began to illuminate to me in a new way.

Doug Witherup holds a B.A. from Southeastern University and an M.Th. from the University of Wales, Bangor. Currently, Doug serves as Lead Associate Pastor of Concord First Assembly, a thriving church north of Charlotte, NC that has grown from 1300 to over 3000 in the past five years. He also serves as the District Youth

Director for North Carolina, providing vision and leadership to youth pastors and leaders across the state. Doug and his wife Camden have a son, Cade, and daughter, Ana and enjoy spending lots of time together, especially if it involves the lake or eating at Gary's Barbecue.
